February Activity Information

February Guest Speaker- Mr. Jim Jordan
Friday February 2nd, 2018 @4:00pm-5:45pm

“Jim Jordan, president of reportbullying.com, will be delivering a keynote speech at the school on Friday, Feb. 2. It will feature topics ranging from understanding what bullying is, different forms of bullying and building good character. Students will be taught about the roles of different people in a bullying situation — bullies, victims and bystanders — as well as how to take a proactive role as a positive bystander.

Jordan is an author of four books on bullying and has been travelling across North America to educate students, teachers and parents on how to become proactive in bullying situations. He is also a magician and incorporates magic, as well as video, into his presentation.”
